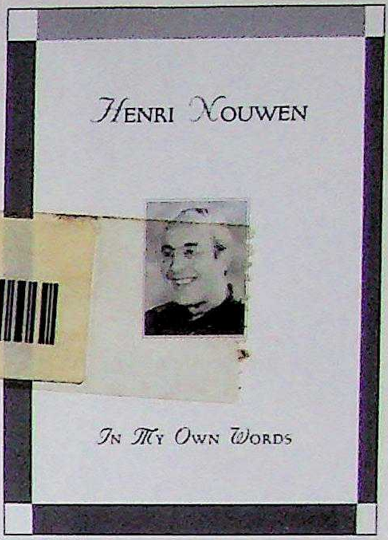
A topical arrangement of quotations from Henri Nouwen

Henri Nouwen: In My Own Words

Compiled by Robert Durback



104342

Robert Durback, who was a friend of Henri Nouwen's for more than twenty years, writes in the introduction of this book that "Henri sleeps now, but he gives me no rest. He keeps on saying to me…you can do it…and so I am again letting Henri Nouwen have one more say. In My Own Words." Henri Nouwen: In My Own Words is a thematic collection of memorable writings of Henri Nouwen inviting readers to share spiritual intimacy with this popular writer about [illegible] depression, friendship, peace, and other topics.

So much has been written by and about Henri Nouwen that it is difficult to think that there may be a place for another collection. But the mark of a great writer is the ability to connect or to touch the lives of people in a language they can understand, and lead them to places where they need to be. Henri Nouwen was such a writer and his contributions that are gathered in this volume will hopefully unleash something that will inspire and enable its readers.

Henri J. M. Nouwen, a Dutch Roman Catholic priest who died in 1996, was one of this century's most popular spiritual writers. His accounts of his experiences as a leader in the civil rights struggle of the 1960s and in the antinuclear movement are models of balance between the political and personal aspects of Christian faith. Nouwen's greatest strength, however, was as a memoirist and diarist. Some of his best writing concerns his final ministerial call: working and living with mentally handicapped people at L'Arche-Daybreak community in Toronto.

Robert Durback, a former monk of Mepkin Abbey in Moncks Corner, S.C., is editor of Seeds of Hope: A Henri Nouwen Reader and a contributor to the Spiritual Formation Bible. Robert Durback says in an article in America magazine: " 'He was talking as though he was talking from inside of me.' The words were spoken in reference to Thomas Merton, but when I read them years ago my thoughts turned instinctively to Henri Nouwen. It was a gift they both shared. They knew how to communicate from inside the people outside of them. "

> "I still believe deeply that our few years on this earth
> Are part of a much larger event that stretches out far
> Beyond the boundaries of our birth and death.
> I think of it as a mission into time, a mission
> That is very exhilarating and even exciting,
> Mostly because the One who sent me on the mission
> Is waiting for me to come home
> And tell the story of what I have learned."

Saint Anthony and Saint Jude

True Stories of Heavenly Help

Mitch Finley

This book is about belief in the help of the saints. It is about recovering a wider sense of the community of faith, one that includes devotion to saints as heavenly intercessors with God.

St. Jude, the patron of lost causes, and St. Anthony of Padua, the finder of lost objects, are two saints who have attracted popular devotion and who have become fixtures in the pantheon of Catholic saints. This book features a selection of real-life stories garnered from people whose prayers to St. Anthony of Padua and St. Jude have been answered.

Beginning with a brief explanation of the communion of saints, this book then offers biographies of St. Anthony of Padua and St. Jude, and a history of how devotion to these two saints became popular in the U.S. The heart of the book presents real-life stories of prayers answered by both these "heavenly helpers."

Stories of successful intercessions on the part of St. Anthony range from missing rings to missing people, from lost glasses to lost loves. Recountings of St. Jude's assistance range from stories of cancer survival to averted bank foreclosures, from the completion of a normal pregnancy against all odds to miraculous rescues.

Concluding the book is a selection of prayers and novenas to both these saints.

Mitch Finley is a prolific and popular author of many books and articles, including The Seven Gifts of the Holy Spirit, The Catholic Virtues: Seven Pillars of a Good Life; The Ten Commandments: Timeless Challenges for Today; For Men Only: Strategies for Living Catholic. He received a master of theology strategies degree from Marquette University and has worked previously as a book reviewer and syndicated columnist. He lives in Spokane, Washington.

A tickle-me-funny-bone collection of the words of the saints. A yearly sojourn with saints who smile

Wit and Wisdom of the Saints

A Year of Saintly Humor

Victoria Hébert and Judy Bauer

We all like to spend time with people who make us laugh. Those who always have a good word, a smile, and a happy perspective naturally draw us into their friendship. But what about the holy men and women we have been taught to revere for their closeness to God? Did they laugh and joke?

Wit and Wisdom of the Saints introduces us to our blessed heroes in a new way. A collection of witticisms from a full spectrum of saints, we are presented with sayings from the early martyrs to contemporary saints. From Bernard of Clairvaux to Bernadette of Lourdes, from John Bosco to Blessed Pope John XXIII—this book paints a warm and very human portrait of holy people who were also very happy.

We are reminded of the virtue of perseverance when we read about St. Clement Hofbauer. Praying for a special favor, St. Clement knocked on the tabernacle door with trust and holy humor saying, "Lord, we'll see who gives up first." Saintly humor and humility are mixed in St. Bonaventure's reply to his elevation to cardinal—"hang the red hat on the tree until I finish doing the dishes." When called a "complete ass" by a professor, St. John Vianney retorted, "If Samson, armed with only the jawbone of an ass, could kill one thousand Philistines, imagine what God could do with a complete ass."

A joyful presentation of the humorous side of sanctity, Wit and Wisdom of the Saints reminds the reader that God wants his saints to be happy. Get ready for a litany of laughter.

Victoria Hébert is the editor of the English edition of the magazine The Annals of Ste. Anne de Beaupre and is a frequent contributor to both English and French magazines. She has also been the translator for Liguori's 15 Days of Prayer series. Vicki holds degrees in psychology and religious studies from the University of Waterloo in Ontario, Canada.

Judy Bauer is the managing editor of the book group for Liguori Publications in Liguori, Missouri and a former editor with Harper, McGraw-Hill, and Silver Burdett.

Selections From Alexander Carmichael's Carmina Gadelica

Edited by Esther de Waal

Foreword by Timothy Joyce, OSB

Devotees of Irish spirituality, and those interested in Irish heritage, will cherish this authentic collection of Celtic wisdom and prayer. Assembled from the original six volumes of Carmichael's Carmina Gadelica by noted Celtic author Esther de Waal, this rich array includes elements of piety that address every aspect of life. Morning prayers ask God's favor for a new beginning, while night prayers thankfully recall the blessings of the day gone by. Every aspect of daily life is sanctified with prayers for hearth, home, work, and play. Blessings, invocations, and good wishes catch the Celtic spirit affirming the presence and power of the Creator. Sections on Mary, the saints, angels and Christmas carols add seasoning to this unique book of Irish spirituality. Petitions to God for a safe journey and protection are mixed with humble prayers of acceptance at the time of death.

Providing an inspiring look into the Irish Soul, The Celtic Vision will be treasured by all who seek a deeply personal spirituality, and by those seeking an intimate relationship with God.

Esther de Waal studied history at Cambridge, and has written widely on Celtic and Benedictine spirituality. She also lectures and conducts retreats across the U.S., Great Britain, and South Africa.

Alexander Carmichael (1832-1912), an expert in the folklore and tradition of Scotland and its Western Isles, collected, in his sixty years of Gaelic pilgrimages, the blessings, tales, history songs, and prayers in his six-volume masterpiece Carmina Gadelica.

At the urging of Pope Paul VI in 1971, the leaders of monastic communities throughout the world were encouraged to help the pilgrim people of God rediscover an ancient way of prayer, and to help them discover their true hearts, centered in God so that they could ground their lives in truth and in the love and in the power of God.

This ancient method of prayer came to be known as "Centering Prayer." Introduced in the fifth century by John Cassian after encounters with the desert father Abba Issac, John Cassian wrote that Abba Issac spoke beautifully of communion with God who so loves us and dwells in us. John Cassian set forth to bring to the West the wisdom he had found in the East. Throughout the ages monks and nuns read from the writings of the conferences of Abba Issac, as recorded by John Cassian. They practiced the prayer and they taught others to prayer.

This book is for seekers of an enriched prayer life; newcomers to centering prayer; and those interested in the intersection between Eastern and Western ways of praying.

Abbot M. Basil Pennington, a leading writer on spiritual topics, has traveled around the world and built an international reputation as a speaker and teacher. He is currently the abbot of Holy Spirit Monastery in Conyers, Georgia, and is the former director of the candidate program for St. Joseph's Abbey in Spencer, Massachusetts. He is the author of many books, including A Place Apart: Monastic Prayer and Practice for Everyone and The Eucharist: Wine of Faith, Bread of Life.

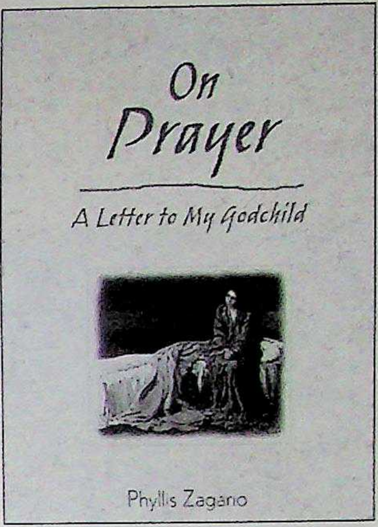
An elegant and timeless book that forms a personal introduction to prayer

On Prayer

A Letter to My Godchild

Phyllis Zagano



On Prayer, originally conceived as a very personal letter to the author's godchild, is actually a marvelous introduction to prayer in the Catholic tradition. This simple and elegant book holds intimate reflections of understanding and wisdom.

This book is intended to help the reader understand that prayer means talking and being with God. Praying is as simple as breathing. In fact some spiritual writers tell us that the way to keep in touch with that magnificent reality we know as God is to "breathe" a word or phrase as we go along our daily business.

Phyllis Zagano in this remarkable work introduces the reader to the very basics of prayer and in its many forms. There are short chapters on adoration, contrition, petition, thanksgiving, methods of praying, praying with Scripture, contemplation, Lectio Divina, and Prayer of the Hours.

In her insightful and readable style, the author is able to explain to teens and adults alike the essence of prayer and writes "that if we know and love God through prayer we find that we must go out of ourselves to extend God's love in service."

Phyllis Zagano is the founding co-chair of the Roman Catholic Studies Group of the American Academy of Religion, the world's largest society of scholars of religion, and author and editor of nine other books. She holds five academic degrees and has taught at major universities on the East Coast. Phyllis lives and works in New York City.

15 Days of Prayer with Saint Faustina Kowalska

John J. Cleary

A 15-day journey with the newly canonized (April 30, 2000) Sr. Faustina Kowalska, bearer of the message and devotion of the Divine Mercy.

15 Days of Prayer with Saint Faustina Kowalska is one of twenty-one titles in the 15 Days of Prayer... series. This series provides an introduction to spiritual masters of both modern and historical times and gives the reader an opportunity to participate in a spiritual conference with a great teacher, if only through the pages of a book. Born Helena Kowalska (1905) in Poland, Faustina entered the Congregation of the Sisters of Our Lady of Mercy when she was nearly twenty. In the 1930s, Sister Faustina received from the Lord a message of mercy that she was told to spread throughout the world. This message involved (1) asking for God's mercy, (2) being merciful ourselves, and (3) completely trusting in God's mercy. Faustina died from tuberculosis in 1938.

John J. Cleary is an editor at Liguori Publications.

"15 Days of Prayer" Collection

These inspirational treasures from 21 of the giants of Christian spirituality weave each of the spiritual master's own words into 15 days of prayer, conversation, and deepening interaction and revelation.

Written from a perspective designed to emulate a personal encounter, each work transports readers to the locale of a retreat or spiritual conference where they may benefit from the personal company of the respective spiritual leader. By providing readers with an inside look at each revered figure, this collection fosters heightened understanding and creative interpretation.

Perfect for those looking for an abbreviated introduction to a particular spiritual guide, those searching for spiritual gift ideas, and those who merely wish to know more about the person and his or her spiritual philosophy.

Loved for Who I Am

Carlo Maria Martini

Led by the word of God, Cardinal Carlo Martini has been responsible for enriching the faith of believers and for sowing the seeds of faith among non-believers. Presenting a faith experience that is appreciated by both Christians and Jews, Cardinal Martini's theological and scriptural meditations are accessible to all.

In Loved for Who I Am, Cardinal Martini conducts a retreat that is designed to lead the reader into a dialogue with God. Beginning with the most elementary questions, Martini asks, "Who am I?" and "Who is my God?" The answers to these two questions create the stage upon which my discusson with God will take place. The drama on the stage develops through a series of nine dialogues that use Lectio Divina, or holy readings, from the Old and New Testaments. Reflection upon these passages is designed to encourage readers to see the relevance of the readings in their own life experiences. This existential approach brings the reader to a more personal and dynamic relationship with God.

Loved for Who I Am is a personal spiritual retreat that will bring the reader face to face with his relationship with God by focusing on the connection between the holy readings and everyday experience. This book is ideal for use in formal retreat settings and by those who are not able to attend a retreat.

Cardinal Carlo Maria Martini has been Archbishop of Milan since 1979 and Cardinal since 1983. He has also served as president of the European Episcopal Conference.

How do Advent, Christmas, Ordinary Time, Lent, and Easter connect with a person's spiritual life? For some people, the Church's liturgical seasons have everything in the world to do with their walk of faith; for others, these seasons have little relevance; still others may be uncertain about their spiritual meaning.

In six brief chapters, this helps the reader open up the deep spiritual meaning of each season of the Church year and uncovers its relevance for everyday lives. It uses examples from poetry, drama, literature, sacred art, nature, and personal experience.

In Chapter 1, Samuel Beckett's Waiting for Godot provides a point of departure for the various kinds of waiting we experience during the season of Advent. In Chapter 2, an icon of the Nativity sheds light on the deep symbolic meaning of the Christmas mystery and puts us in touch with the ongoing incarnation of the Word within our hearts. Chapter 3 imaginatively uses Jesus' hidden life and public ministry to uncover the call to simple living embedded in the first period of Ordinary Time. In Chapter 4, the insights of Saint Ambrose of Milan bring out the importance of prayer, fasting, almsgiving, and watchfulness for the season of Lent. In Chapter 5, metaphors of the Resurrection found in nature highlight the transformation character of the Easter season. In Chapter 6, Michelangelo's The Last Judgment offers insights into the cosmic and eschatological character of the second period of Ordinary Time.

Much has been written about the liturgical seasons and the renewal of Vatican Council and the contribution of the Catechism of the Catholic Church, but little has been written on the impact of the liturgical seasons on our own experience.

Advent and Christmas with Fulton J. Sheen

Edited and Compiled by Judy Bauer

Few times are more sacred for a Christian family or household than Christmas. Advent and Christmas are a time of sharing, a time of storytelling, a time to clear your mind and cleanse your soul through deepened spirituality. The weeks of Advent remind us to set aside some of the hectic business of the holiday season, and to quietly reflect on the promise of the baby born in Bethlehem 2,000 years ago.

These selections from the immortal pen of Bishop Fulton J. Sheen stir our hearts and imaginations as we embark on our Advent journey toward a better understanding of Jesus' love. Covering the traditional themes of Advent — waiting for the Annunciation, following the star, Bethlehem, Herod, the manger — these 45 passages and accompanying mini-prayers offer readers practical spirituality for the hustle and bustle of the holidays.

Beginning with the first day of Advent and continuing through the Feast of the Baptism of Our Lord, this book brims with rich and life-changing words that encourage readers to explore the essence and promise of the season. Timeless, peace-filled, and prayerful, each passage helps cultivate a renewed appreciation for the Advent and Christmas seasons, helping to make every day of Advent a prayerful opportunity for spiritual growth.

Those looking to grow in their prayer life and become more attuned to the joy of Advent and Christmas will find a wonderful guide in this spiritual companion.

Television personality, broadcaster, author and columnist, pastor, educator, and philosopher, Bishop Fulton J. Sheen is widely regarded as the twentieth century's best-loved Roman Catholic prelate — the original media luminary for the spiritual world. In addition to two monthly columns that ran for nearly 20 years, Bishop Sheen authored dozens of books spanning more than a half-century.

Into Your Hands

Meditations and Prayers on the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ

Edited by Norman J. Muckerman, C.Ss.R.

A collection of writings of Saint Alphonsus Liguori on several Lenten themes, including the Passion, Death, and Resurrection of Jesus Christ.

An illuminating work from an authority on spiritual matters, Into Your Hands reflects, prays, and meditates on the events surrounding Christ's Passion and death. These meditations are based on the holy Evangelists; they explore the necessity of Christ's passion for our Redemption and present a series of further meditations on heaven, the beatific vision, linking the sorrow and sacrifice of these events to Christ's glorious Resurrection.

This book of reflections, prayers, and mediations is meant to inflame us with the love of God who has loved us so much that he suffered such a bitter death. It is also meant to give us hope, a hope and a trust that for us, as for Jesus, there is a life after life and that we are an Easter people and Alleluia is our song.

Alphonsus Liguori: 1696–1787: Lawyer, founder of the Redemptorists, preacher, Doctor of the Church, influential moral theologian, and author of more than twenty-two devotional works. Saint Alphonsus's writings include a small treasury of the wisdom of the saints he knew so well and used so wisely—Augustine, Bernard, Francis, Bonaventure, Thomas Aquinas, Teresa of Ávila, John of the Cross, and many others.

Norman J. Muckerman, C.Ss.R., has been a long-time editor of Liguorian magazine and past president of the Catholic Press Association.

A practical guide to aid people in the art of retreat work in the parish setting

Planning and Implementing Retreats

A Parish Handbook

Nicki Verploegen Vandergrift

Retreats have helped shape people's spiritual lives for generations. This handbook provides practical, creative, and simple tools for pastoral agents who are involved in designing experiences to enhance people's spiritual lives in the parish environment. This text supports the attempts of pastoral groups to construct creative retreat opportunities without having to start from scratch. At the heart of this resource are five planning and design strategies for professionals and volunteers who want to create a well-organized and spiritually sensitive retreat experience.

Subsequent chapters deal with special areas of concern, worship and liturgy, and evaluation. The planning and design strategies and the special areas of concern for planning retreats described within the book are suitable for group retreats offered in parishes, hospital ministries, campus ministries, and other pastoral sites where there is an interest in the spiritual formation of Christian adults. The strategies outlined in the text may be used when planning short retreats, days of recollection, evenings of reflection, or opportunities for reconciliation and healing. They can also be used in longer settings such a weeklong retreat. This book can help planners nourish their own spiritual life as they prepare for the blessed task of journeying with those in search of the living God.

Nicki Verploegen Vandergrift, Ph.D., is the director of Spiritual and Ministerial Development and a visiting professor at Weston Jesuit School of Theology in Cambridge, Massachusetts. Do you like to dig in the dirt, to plant, to putter? Or do you prefer to walk in the woods or a stroll through a park, and be surprised by the glory of God's beauties planted hither and yon? Whichever type of "gardening" you choose, the sight of a garden in full bloom can really bring you to your knees.

Written by prolific, best-selling and humorous author Bernadette McCarver Snyder, this book is a panoply of prayers and meditations organized around the seasons of a garden year. A warmly humorous take on flowers—and even weeds—as God's gift to us.

> "You learn that a garden needs good soil, water, light – and sometimes a fence! For a happy life, you need the same. You need a little fence to get some private quite time but you also need occasional showers of friendship and light from above. As for soil, you probably know that another word for good soil is 'humus' which comes from the Latin word meaning humility. And it doesn't take long to get that, whether you're digging in the garden or walking through one. Oh, and you may have noticed that if you substitute 'U' for 'I,' soil becomes soul!"

An in-depth exploration of Gerard drawn from how he lived the spirituality of his time

Saint Gerard Majella

His Writings and Spirituality

Translated by Peter Heinegg

A different kind of biography, St. Gerard Majella introduces us to the saint in a new and non-traditional way. Offering an in-depth exploration of who Gerard was drawn from how he lived the spirituality of his times and through his writings, this book will benefit all readers, even those already familiar with the saint.

Born in 1726, Gerard was the son of a tailor and was himself apprenticed as a tailor. Drawn by a desire for service to the Lord, Gerard applied for admission to the Capuchins and the Redemptorists, but was refused because of frailty. Remaining dedicated to his purpose, Gerard was eventually accepted by the Redemptorists on a trial basis, three years later he took his religious vows. After this he worked as an advisor to priests and nuns, a champion of vocations, a rescuer of lost souls, and a servant to anyone in need. His accomplishments were mixed with physical hardship and spiritual trials, which included slander so damaging that it prevented him from receiving the Eucharist. Gerard died of tuberculosis in 1755, at the age of 29.

Providing more than a recitation of facts, Saint Gerard Majella offers a deep and comprehensive understanding of the saint through the witness of his spiritual life and the testimony of his own words. Gerard's love for people, especially the poor, is clearly revealed as an outward display of his interior spirituality and love for God. Through his letters, he shares his passion with honest simplicity and candor. A Christ-centered "saint of the people," Gerard lived a life that was truly open to the action of the Holy Spirit. A revealing personal portrait of a beloved saint.

Gerard was canonized by Pope Pius X in 1904. His feast day is October 16. Today St. Gerard is well known for his protection of expectant mothers and is recognized as the patron of mothers and babies.

Here Now in Love

The Roots of Contemplative Spirituality

Philip St. Romain

This book is built on the conviction that if we are to know God, then we must be where God is, or we will miss him; we must also strive to be as God or we will not recognize him. This is not a new spirituality but a common vocation of us all: To love God with our whole heart and soul and mind and strength and our neighbor as ourselves.

Philip St. Romain has seriously studied Christian spirituality for 27 years and has attempted to put into practice what he has learned. The basic lesson is, above all, that life is a never-ending flow of opportunities to choose, and the only choice which brings peace and happiness is to be here now in love.

This thesis may sound simplistic, the author reflects, but it is the truth about what brings unconditional happiness, and is also the spiritual message at the heart of world religions. Religion is supposed to lead one to deeply embrace a life of being here now in love.

The book challenges its reader to start here and now, endeavor to live your life more attentively, being present to this moment and what is happening both within and outside of you. With a consistent effort, you will become who you actually are. Then you will know the meaning of the passage of Scripture "I live, not I, but Christ."

Philip St. Romain is a retreat master and has written and lectured extensively on spiritual topics. Certified as a master catechist and substance abuse counselor, he is also a psychologist in private practice.

The story of our redemption comes to life for children through Scripture passages and creative activities.

Every Day of Lent leads children in the footsteps of Jesus, from His temptation in the desert to the glory of His Resurrection. Children accompany Jesus as He cures the blind man and as He raises Lazarus from the dead. Travelling with Jesus on the way to Calvary teaches children about God's great love for us. Learning exercises present the symbols of Lent and Easter.

A joyful introduction to the mystery of our redemption.

Living the spiritual journey in later years

Prayers for Later Years

William Rabior

As we pass through the various stages of our life, change is the one constant. Our lives change, our bodies change, our situations change, and our response to these changes vary as well. Our spirituality takes on new aspects as we grow from child to teen and into adulthood, and with those changes, so too our prayer takes on new meaning, new intent, and new form.

In Prayers for Later Years, William Rabior captures the concerns, the themes, the tone of prayer that flows from a maturing faith born of our later years. Prayers of appreciation, prayers for healing, prayers for special people, prayers for special days — this volume leads you through the spiritual journey of later years with compassion, understanding, and a deep sense that prayerful communication with our God only improves with the passing of the years.

Healing the Abusive Family

Beyond Survival

Mary E. Latela

R
LIG-L

There are books about the problem of abusive situations within families, and books for professionals showing how to counsel and minister to victims of abuse, and books that advocate strategies for helping people escape and survive abusive family situations. But this little book is different. This book is designed to help victims of family abuse move beyond escaping the abusive situation, beyond surviving the abuse, toward healing and new life.

In this volume, Mary Latela offers, in free-flowing verse, a succession of probing personal questions and reflections on the realities of moving beyond violence and abuse. She moves the reader from the stark reality of beginning to recover, toward making peace with God, and through the process of dealing with guilt, grief and anger. In the process, she gently shows the way through the steps and questions that must be dealt with, prayed about, and worked through while rebuilding a life and becoming "whole" again.

An excellent tool for those who have freed themselves from abusive family situations and now must face the daunting task of healing and rebuilding their lives.

Prayer

Novena Prayers and Devotions

Brother Daniel Korn, C.Ss.R.

The tradition of making a novena (nine days of prayer) is a long-honored practice in the Catholic Church. In the Acts of the Apostles we read about the nine days of prayer and vigil that took place from our Lord's ascension until the festival of Pentecost. Over the centuries the faith community has developed the practice of setting aside a special number of days for offering prayer in preparation for significant feasts.

The novenas in this deluxe pamphlet are put forward for those who wish to experience the richness of this time-honored prayer experience. Full novenas include novenas to the Most Holy Trinity, the Sacred Heart of Jesus, Our Mother of Perpetual Help, Our Lady of Guadalupe, and Saint Joseph. In addition, Brother Dan has included a host of devotional novena prayers to a wide variety of saints, including Saint Jude, Saint Gerard Majella, and Saint Anthony.

Caring for Yourself While Caring for Others

Ralph Ranieri

There are many reasons that people become "long-term caregivers" within their families. Older people find themselves needing to care for their spouses, especially when they live far from children and extended family. Or children find themselves caring for parents when assisted living or nursing homes are not the answer. This pamphlet discusses the virtues, attitudes and qualities that help make successful caregivers, suggesting the kinds of self-care that can be utilized to enable the caregiver to embrace their day-to-day challenges in a healthy and faith-filled manner.

Prayers to Lift My Spirit

Rev. William Rabior

For most of us, there are times in our lives when we find ourselves struggling, looking for something that will point us toward greater wholeness and a sense of inner healing. While our need for prayerful expression may be greater at these times, we may find that the words simply won't come for us.

In offering these prayers, the author tries to facilitate the healing of inner wounds and help raise self-esteem at those times when wounds may be deep and self-esteem low. Filled with compassion and understanding, these prayers will help you put aside the pain of compulsively low self-esteem and move toward healing.

Listen to Your Heart

God's Will in Your Life

Marilyn Gustin

Are we looking for God's will in all the wrong places? We often view God as distant and removed. When this happens, we become confused about what God wants for us.

Listen to Your Heart presents a new and inspiring approach to finding and following God's will. Reminding us that the Holy Spirit dwells in each person, this pamphlet encourages us to listen to God's voice from within. God speaks to us in our secret desires, our private thoughts, and our hidden aspirations. An eloquent recognition that God desires our happiness, this pamphlet shows how the deepest rumblings of our heart may be God speaking to us - if we will only listen.

Dying Well

The Christian Art of Dying

Peter J. Bernardi, S.J.

The importance of a Christian ethical stance is increasingly obvious when we look at the many voices vying for the medical, moral and human "high ground" today. The debate about euthanasia becomes ever more strident. In the face of this reality, the author focuses here on some important aspects of preparing for death as a Christian, where the ideal is not "self-mastery" but surrender to a larger mystery that embraces us. Rather than assent to the popular conception of euthanasia as an option, this discussion concisely spells out why we, as Roman Catholics, are fundamentally opposed to this seemingly "humane" way of dealing with pain, suffering and fear.

A PARENT ENRICHMENT PROGRAM FOR INFANT BAPTISM
CHARLES BALSAM

Like all Sacraments, Baptism presents an opportunity for life transforming grace. Proper preparation is essential in order to benefit fully from this grace-filled encounter. All too often, preparation is limited to getting ready for the celebration of the Rite. What Do You Ask of God's Church? expands the perspective by presenting Baptism as ritual, as initiation into the Christian Community, and as entry into the "domestic church" — the home.

A versatile four-session program, What Do You Ask of God's Church? may be restructured in two sessions. The program is designed for couples, single parents, and godparents. What Do You Ask of God's Church? is an indispensable tool for Baptismal preparation.

El Día de los Muertos

Padre Heliodoro Lucatero

Una de las realidades más difíciles para cualquier ser humano es la muerte. Muchas veces el no mencionarla nos parece un remedio para hacerla menos real. En los países de cultura hispano/latina –sobre todo en México- la costumbre de celebrar por todo lo alto el Día de los Muertos, la misma forma en que se celebra, indica que la muerte se ve como lo que realmente es: el paso a la vida eterna prometida por Cristo.

Las aplicaciones pastorales que ofrece el libro serán de gran ayuda para las parroquias y para todos aquellos que buscan y aprecian las diferentes manifestaciones de Dios en cada pueblo y cultura.

64 paginas, Folleto • ISBN. 0-7648-0779-X • ID #19959 • $1.95

One of the most difficult things for humans to deal with is the reality of death. Sometimes we choose not to talk about it in order to make it seem less real. In countries of Hispanic/Latino culture, however the Day of the Dead is an important and festive celebration. This is indicative of the concept that these cultures have regarding death: the doorway to eternal life as promised by Christ.

In this book, the author will help us appreciate how these cultures see the "other side" as a natural extension of life, where deceased family members continue living.
